"Procrastination is the thief of time, collar him" - Charles Dickens. This quotation is about a very harmful process which doesn't let people do things at ~~the~~ ^{the} right time. Moreover, this appearance makes people postpone their goals and best time of living for the future.

In my opinion, people can cope with procrastination, so it doesn't collar ~~pro~~ society to spend their time uselessly. ~~Althoug~~ Although, lots of people hesitates about their future and it makes them feel inconfident and scared of doing some things, they can stop their time-wasting because they have very strong will. In addition, they can combat with their ~~avoidance~~ avoidance of plans by making rules by themselves and follow them.

As for me, I can say that I always try to cope with my procrastination by forcing ~~me~~ myself to do all thing at the right time, at once. I try to make a new habit to not to delay any plans and duties for tomorrow.

In conclusion, I want to say that procrastination is not really difficult one to cope with. We can train ourselves to ~~impr~~ ^{impr} for improving our stamina and will and always being hardworking. All people have ability and opportunity to manage themselves do all chores like it is required to be. For In the end, I ~~not~~ want to say that all people can develop particular characteristics for dealing with procrastination.
